

Hausham

The village Hausham is situated 50 km southeast of Munich. The course will take place in a house above the district Agatharied.

The complete address is:

*Jugendhaus Berghof
Berg 112
Hausham*

If you arrive by train

The railway station in Agatharied can be reached easily by train with the “BOB” (Bayerische Oberlandbahn) going from Munich to Bayrisch Zell. Trains are departing from Munich hourly.

To help getting to the centre by public transport, there is a private shuttle-service on the arrival day and on the departure day from/to the Agatharied station to the course site. The students are asked to share the costs of the ride amongst themselves and pay the fee directly to the driver. Meeting point is in front of the station.

Please inform the regional contact by email (info@southeast.de.dhamma.org) or phone (08171-96 83 20) until 2 weeks before the course starts in case you want to reserve a seat in the shuttle. Therefore, we also need your name, the time of the respective shuttle and please repeat the course site to us again.

Departure of the shuttle-service at the railway station

Monday – Friday: 3:00pm / 4:00pm / 5:00pm

Saturday – Sunday and holidays: 2:30pm / 3:30pm / 4:30pm

(Only when reserved as described above.)

If you arrive by car

The course site can be reached best by the highway A8 Munich-Salzburg

- Exit: Weyarn, heading for Schliersee (coming from Munich)
- Exit: Irschenberg, heading for Schliersee (coming from Salzburg)
- about 2km after Miesbach go left in direction to Stadelbergalm (same departure as going to the hospital of Agatharied)
- At the parking of the hospital drive left up the hill and follow the road 1.5km.
